

Academic TML-KUL Lunch Seminars on Transport Policy

Dear all,

KUL and TML joined their transport seminars in a new series of events, now also open for external participants.

We foresee to have 20 seminars per year, on a variety of transport related topics.

Agenda:

Monday, 5 December 2011, 12.00h-13.30h:

- Dr. Maria Börjesson (CST Stockholm, Sweden): Stockholm congestion charge, 4 years later.
- Angelo Martino (TRT, Italy): Milano: from pollution charge to congestion charge.

Monday, 9 January 2012, 12.00h-13.30h: TBD

- Dr. Bart Vannieuwenhuysse (Tri-Vizor): Carpooling for cargo. Behind the scenes of the 'World's First Showcase of Orchestrated Horizontal Collaboration'
- Kris Vanherle (TML): Road versus short sea shipping: comparing emissions and external costs

Monday, 23 January 2012, 12.00h-13.30h:

- Wim Benoot (KUL): Strategic fuel efficiency policies.

Monday, 13 February 2012, 12.00h-13.30h: TBD

Monday, 27 February 2012, 12.00h-13.30h:

- Prof. Stef Proost (KUL): What is a sustainable city?

Monday, 12 March 2012, 12.00h-13.30h: TBD

Monday, 26 March 2012, 12.00h-13.30h: TBD

Please confirm your attendance for the next seminar before Thursday 1 December.

Location: Diestsesteenweg 57, 3000 Leuven (2 minutes walk from the railwaystation www.tmleuven.be/contact/home.htm)

On invitation only, limited number of seats available.

Participation is free. Lunch (sandwiches) will be provided by TML and KUL for those that registered.

The presentations of previous seminars can be found here:
<http://www.tmleuven.be/expertise/seminar/home.htm>

Best regards,

Griet De Ceuster, TML

Stef Proost, Energy - Transport-Environment, Center for Economic Studies, KUL

Chris Tampère, Traffic & Infrastructure, CIB, KUL

Griet De Ceuster
Transport & Mobility Leuven
TEL +32 16 31.77.30